Suggested Activities

Week of July 13 Herbert Jackson

Age Level	Activity Instructions
All Ages	Herbert L. Jackson was known for bringing people in the community together. Read The Colors of Us by Karen Katz aloud with friends or family. Discuss: What do you like most about the book? What did it make you think about?
All Ages	Herbert L. Jackson was born in Malden in 1908. Make a Diorama of Malden from around that time to today. Submit pictures of your Diorama to MaldenArts.org or our Facebook page!
Family/Group	Herbert L. Jackson was a leader: High School Class President, City Councillor, City Council President, Business Owner. Take turns being a leader by playing "Herbert L. Jackson Says." The leader gives commands like, "touch your toes," "take a step forward," or "touch your left ear with your right hand." The rest of the group only follows the leader's commands if they start with "Herbert Jackson says..." (If you've ever played Simon Says , it's the same idea.)
All Ages	Herbert was from a family of tailors, his father is said to have made the uniforms for the Malden Police and Fire departments. Research what people wore in the mid-20th century. Make a Sock Puppet wearing a uniform or dressed like someone from that time. Submit pictures of your Sock Puppet to MaldenArts.org or our Facebook page!
All Ages	Herbert L. Jackson grew up in the 1910s and 1920s. Children his age played baseball and Hopscotch , play hopscotch -- if you don't have sidewalk chalk, try using a stone to draw the lines. Tinker Toys and board games were new, play your favorite board game, such as Chutes and Ladders or Candyland, or a card game like Go Fish .
High School through Adult	Do you or a family member have memories of Herbert L. Jackson? Share them on Malden Art's Facebook page . Consider voice recording your or your family member's memories through StoryCorps .
4th through 8th grades High School through Adult	Herbert L. Jackson served on the Malden City Council representing Ward 7 from 1945 to 1947, Ward 5 from 1947 to 1951, and as Councillor at Large from 1965 to 1975. Find your ward by locating your address in the Ward Map . Tip: You might need to make the map bigger by clicking the plus sign (+) to see your street. Herbert Jackson served two different wards because they were redistricted in 1947, compare to 1946.
