

Take a Walking Tour

MaldenArtsMondays!

Week of August 24

Keith Knight

Map of Tour Route

Suggested by none other than Keith Knight himself.

- 1) Daniel's School/Kiersted park- played baseball (with Kenny Mazonson as coach!) and basketball at those parks (went to school at Daniel's before they became apartments)
- 2) I grew up in the Lisbon St. apartments til I was 12.
- 3) 465 Bryant St. was my home starting at 12, til I left for college. We moved there during the Blizzard of '78. I remember pulling stuff on sleds.
- 4) My great uncle lived around the corner on Rich Street in Everett
- 5) Lincoln Jr. High (now Lincoln Commons) where my cousin painted graffiti on the wall that said "We're gonna go rub you out Keith Knight"
- 6) Salemwood School- Went through the Majorworks program with my twin sis where we were the only Black kids in the school! The program had us doing plays, puppet shows, presentations and the like. Fun time
- 7) Malden Library- Used to read Doonesbury and Peanuts books all the time. A couple of my earliest influences. And I was presented an art scholarship at the library during my senior year.
- 8) Malden High School- Great memories of MHS

4) Then

4) Now

